

DECEMBER 2005

Dear Clients and Friends:

Camden Capital is pleased to announce that Mark H. Udis, who formerly worked in corporate finance on the East Coast, has been named Director of the company. Mr. Udis has a solid set of financial skills and a leadership background that will benefit the company's business growth as Camden Capital continues to meet the ongoing dynamic needs of its clients.

Recently relocated to Southern California from Philadelphia, Pa., Mark began his career with Lockheed Martin, which is principally engaged in the research, design, development, manufacture, and integration of advanced technology systems, products, and services. He was recruited to work at Lockheed Martin after college and was selected to participate in the company's esteemed Finance & Leadership Development Program. He held several positions during his tenure at the company, gaining exposure to various financial divisions. Mark also spent two summers as an intern in the Department of Audit & Management Services at Unisys, a worldwide information technology services and solutions company.

Mr. Udis received a B.S. in Finance from Lehigh University, located in Bethlehem, Pa. He was an active member of Theta Xi, serving both as President and Treasurer of the fraternity. He continues to sit on the Board of Directors, serving as Treasurer of the fraternity's alumni association.

After leaving Lehigh University, Mr. Udis continued his educational pursuits, completing coursework at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. During this endeavor, he focused both on the global economy and on the functioning of financial markets.

We look forward to Mark's contribution and welcome him to Camden Capital.

Best Regards,

John M. Krambeer
President
