

Barron's Recognizes John Krambeer
as Top 100 Independent Wealth Advisor Three Years in a Row

Los Angeles, September 2018 – Camden Capital's CEO and Founder, John M. Krambeer, has been distinguished by Barron's as one of America's Top 100 Independent Wealth Advisors for a third year in a row.

The most recent accolade is a follow-up of Camden Capital's March 2018 acknowledgement, where Mr. Krambeer was distinguished as one of America's Top Financial Advisors for a fifth year in a row by Barron's. The March ranking included private-wealth advisors from independents along with advisors who represent large wirehouses, banks and trust companies.

"We are grateful to receive this award three years in a row and to be featured with these premier investment firms," stated Mr. Krambeer. "Our ongoing efforts to provide exceptional client service and the opportunity to build trusted relationships is the foundation that drives us. I want to thank our devoted clients and dedicated employees at Camden Capital for this latest recognition."

Camden Capital has been building upon its core foundation by focusing on its boutique investment offering for each trusted client and family. Its independent structure, investment platform, family office service offering and underlying fiduciary duty differentiate the firm from a majority of the traditional firms and have been contributors to its success.

Camden Capital provides investment advice and legacy planning to high and ultra-high net worth individuals and families. With a focus on developing long-term relationships with its clients, the firm has grown exclusively through referrals. The firm's relentless commitment to achieving its clients' objectives, investment access and consolidated performance and tax reporting are at the core of its value proposition. Camden Capital has offices in Los Angeles and North Palm Beach. More information is available by visiting online at CamdenCapital.com.
