

Barron's Recognizes John Krambeer as Top Advisor Six Years in a Row

Los Angeles, April 2019 – For a sixth year in a row, CEO and Founder, John M. Krambeer has been distinguished by Barron's as one of America's Top Financial Advisors. The publication recognizes financial advisors that represent the top percentile of advisors who have substantial and well-managed practices located in the United States. Assets under management, revenue generated, and the quality of their practices were the lead factors included in the ranking.

“We are grateful to receive this award six years in a row and to be featured alongside the nation's most productive advisors,” stated Mr. Krambeer. “Our clients are the cornerstone of our business, and I am inspired everyday by the dedication and commitment that our team at Camden Capital has to providing them with exceptional service.”

Camden Capital has been building upon its core foundation and expanding its boutique investment offering throughout the country, opening its newest office in Century City, Los Angeles in 2019. Its independent structure, objective platform and underlying fiduciary duty differentiate it from a majority of the traditional firms and have been contributors to its success.

Camden Capital provides a holistic approach to wealth management and legacy planning for prominent high net worth families, business owners and entrepreneurs. As of February 1, 2019, the firm had over $3.1 billion of assets under management. With a focus on developing long-term relationships with its clients, Camden Capital has grown exclusively through referrals. The firm's relentless commitment to achieving its clients' objectives, investment access and consolidated performance and tax reporting are at the core of its value proposition. Camden Capital has offices in Los Angeles, Century City and North Palm Beach. More information is available by visiting online at CamdenCapital.com.
