

Los Angeles Business Journal Recognizes Camden Capital as Top Money Management Firm

August 2018 – Camden Capital has been recognized by Los Angeles Business Journal in 'The List' of top Money Management Firms. The publication recognizes top Money Management Firms in Los Angeles County, ranked by assets managed in Los Angeles County as of December 31, 2017. Headquartered in El Segundo, California, Camden Capital was ranked 78th out of 100 Money Management Firms recognized by the publication in June 2018.

“Our high-quality service commitment continues to be one of our core principles that has been a key differentiator in our growth,” stated CEO and Founder, John Krambeer. “We have made a conscience effort to build our business with world-class professionals whom continue to allow us to service our national client base and scale our business offering.”

Camden Capital has been building upon its core foundation and expanding its boutique investment offering throughout the country. Its independent structure, objective platform and underlying fiduciary duty differentiate it from a majority of the traditional firms and have been contributors to its success. The firm continues to add key employees who are focused on delivering world-class service and product offerings to its sophisticated client base.

Camden Capital provides unbiased investment advice, legacy planning and family office services to high and ultra-high net worth individuals and families. With a focus on developing long-term relationships with its clients, the firm has grown exclusively through referrals. Camden’s relentless commitment to achieving its clients’ objectives, exclusive investment access and consolidated performance and tax reporting are at the core of its value proposition. Camden Capital has offices in Los Angeles and North Palm Beach. More information is available by calling (310) 725-0210 or visiting online at CamdenCapital.com.
